

Hello families! Here is the list of supplies your child has requested for next time. You do not need to buy materials or think that this is an absolute list. We are experimenting and creating. If you find a substitution, please feel free to send that in. If these materials are not available, please feel free to plan a different project with your child.

My name is: _____

My plan is to create a: _____

I think my steps will be:

The materials I will need are:
